

VMO — Value Management Office

Whether you are an established company or a start-up, a strategic, enterprise-wide[Project/Program/Portfolio] Office approach presents a distinct advantage. It fosters and guides customer focus, value definition and delivery, requisite capabilities and communities of practice. It also facilitates continuous alignment among strategy, delivery, leadership and workforce. AH Consulting's VMO framework is aligned with a value-centric mindset. It is designed to serve the organization in a unifying capacity that makes "value" the unifying thread across practices, avoids siloed approaches, aligns common goals — and drives innovation, excellence, cost reduction, efficiency, adaptability, and market leadership. Engrains "value" in corporate culture.
